Musical Program Highlights Meeting of Club Department

The music department of the Arcadia Woman's club enjoyed a successful meeting on Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Roy J. Regnier, 410 East Duarte road, Arcadia.

Outstanding highlights of the meeting were a presentation of four folk songs, sung by Mrs. Alfred M. LaRay, accompanist, Mrs. Thomas B. Kemp; a brief review of current events in the music world, given by Mrs. H. Verne Woodruff, and Mrs. Bruce G. McAbery, president of the local Woman's club, brought to the group Edgar Guest's poem, "Four Men of God," fittingly ending this true account of heroic sacrifice with "The Lord's Prayer," by Malotte. Mrs. Marguerite Butters accompanied Mrs. McAbery, playing Debussy's "Clair de Lune," as background music for the reading.

After a philanthropy report from Mrs. James Kercheval, it was decided by the members to activate a perpetual birthday remembrance fund for some handicapped or hospitalized children's group in or near our community.

Discussion was held regarding the possible prospect of securing a new Spinet piano for the clubrooms, replacing the upright instrument now in use. Members were urged to support and contribute to the bake sale on Wednesday, at the clubhouse.

Mrs. A. P. Stuhman, chairman, presided, and, following refreshments, chorus rehearsal was conducted by Mrs. Thatcher Jordan, director, with Miss Mary Valentine as accompanist.

Members and guests present at this November meeting were Mmes. Thatcher Jordan, J. E. Hutton, Bruce G. McAbery, John B. Scull, Homer C. Sandberg, J. K. Weems, Charles Ganther, L. Thombs, Leroy Anderson, M. M. Trew, Charles W. Stewart, Clarke Bridgman, Leon-

The Christmas holiday season began for members and guests of the music department, Arcadia Woman's club, with a luncheon served at the beautiful home of Mrs. Robert E. Paradise on Tuesday, Dec. 8.

After an exchange of "white elephant" gifts, which proved highly satisfactory, the following Christmas theme program was presented: A satirical reading entitled "The Homemaker's Christmas Season" was composed and given by Mrs. Richard Stewart, former member of Arcadia Woman's club, now active in the Baldwin Park club; Mrs. Alfred LaRay sang "Jesus the Christ Is Born" and "Sweet Little Jesus Boy," with Mrs. Tom Kemp accompanying; Mrs. H. Verne Woodruff presented three songs, "Deck the Halls," "Christmas Comes Again" and "Cantique de Noel," accompanied by Mrs. A. P. Stuhman. discussion was held regarding additional ways and means projects to further the piano purchase for the clubhouse; announcement was made of the generous invitation made by Mrs. M. W. Cooke to entertain this department for the February monthly meeting, and to share with them selections from her operatic library; plans were made for the Music department's program to be given on Wednesday, the next regular Woman's club meeting, and chorus rehearsal was requested by Mrs. Thatcher Jordan, director, for 10 a.m. tomorrow at the clubhouse.

The scene was a clever satire on clubwomen and taking part were Clara Slattery, Florence Clark, Edna Dettra, Florence Timmons, Virginia Barro, Raylene Winchell, Iris Rice, Florence Cocke, Ione Weickert, Marguerite Olmstead, Grace Hatch, Lila Richardson and Toni Clement.

One of the highlights of the production was the performance of those curvaceous girls from Paris (Kentucky), Olive Stadig and Alice McAbery, who appropriately costumed entertained with their dancing and songs.

"O Promise Me" had both beauty and comedy and taking part were Lila Richardson, Toni Clement, Glory Kercheval, Marjorie Scull, Virginia Barro, Florence Clark, Marguerite Olmstead, Ione Paradise, Elizabeth Chagnon, Louise Thombs, Florence Cocke, Florence Turner, Samuel Nock, Rickie Barro and Morgan Richards. Soloists were Sally Manley and Ronald Bottena with Mrs. Stuhman at the piano.

The Marriotts, a dance team, did the tango, and Shirley Logsdon sang.

The play closed at Madam Hattie Carnegie's salon in New York where Mr. and Mrs. Charles Trilling of Arcadia had come to buy clothes for Mrs. Trilling. Jesse and Margaret Balser gave an amusing performance as the Trillings, and Meryl Reigner as Madam Carnegie tried to interest the Trillings in the beautiful gowns that the lovely models were displaying. However, Mr. Trilling's attention seemed to be centered on the models which kept Mrs. Trilling with an eye on him.

Others in the scene were Doyle Lindley as Robert Rabelaise, the designer, and Toni Clement as a picturesque Russian countess with an accent. Models were Ione Paradise, Trudy Mills, Genevieve Shradler, Maxine Buchell, Marguerite Smith, Florence Turner, Marion Bridgeman and Raylene Winchell. Mrs. Cartwright played background music.

The play was presented as a means of raising money for the increased philanthropy budget adopted this year by the president Mrs. Earl Dettra, and her board.

Music Department Chorus Rehearses For Appearance at Verdugo Meet

Music department of the Woman's Club of Arcadia, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Archie Slover, met at the home of Mrs. Ted Dancart on Jan. 26. The chorus, directed by Mrs. Thatcher Jordan, rehearsed choral numbers to be sung next month on Federation and Reciprocity Day at the Arcadia club, when the music department will present the program of the day.

Work was also begun on the numbers to be sung at the Verdugo District convention in April. At that time, the Arcadia chorus will join with choral groups from other clubs in the Verdugo district forming a 100-voice choir. This will have been the realization of a long cherished dream of Mrs. Lee O. Tenney, district music chairman.

Mrs. Lincoln Schick, a member of the music department, presented a most interesting record review of the "Perambulator Suite" by John Allen Carpenter. In this work the composer has undertaken to depict musically the impressions that a baby would get while being wheeled through the park for an afternoon airing; his nurse, the policeman, hurdy gurdy, the dogs, the lake, and even himself demanding attention.

Mrs. Schick explained and demonstrated at the piano these various themes which enabled the listeners to visualize what was taking place in the music as the record was played. She calls her program "A Listening Lesson," and it proved to be not only educational but most interesting.

Those enjoying the program, and the delicious refreshments served by the hostesses, Mrs. Ariel Hoegee and Mrs. John McDowell, were Mmes. William Adams, club president; Archie Wilson, junior past president; Eric Stadig, Samuel Nock, Irwin Logan, Bruce McCabery, Alby Foy, Charles Ganther, G. A. Pearce, M. M. Trew, Clark Bridgeman, Harvey Moss, D. Arcadia Woman's Club Presents Outstanding Program At Annual Reciprocity Day Observance; Visitors Welcome

An outstanding program was a feature of the annual Reciprocity Day observance last Wednesday at the Arcadia Woman's Club. It was the Music department's "day" and decorations and the program were courtesy of the department.

The program, which featured a scene from the third act of "Hansel and Gretel" was presented by Mrs. Bette Van Day as the old witch, Mrs. Sally Manley, Gretel and Mrs. Dorothy Greiner as Hansel. The delightful old fairytale by Jacob and Wilhelm Grimm which was made into an opera by Humperdinck, has always been a favorite with audiences and last Wednesday's group of clubwomen were no exception.

All three performers attended Julliard School of Music in New York City, have background of opera and concert work, and also all three have appeared in Hansel and Gretel. Mrs. Greiner in Chicago, Mrs. Manley in New York City and Mrs. Van Day recently had the role of the witch with the Eutrepia Opera group in Los Angeles.

Mrs. Albert Stuhman, herself a graduate of the Cincinnati Conservatory of Music, was accompanist. The delightful house of the witch and the 'oven' were created by Stuhman.

Trio

Also on the program was the talented instrumental trio made up of Mmes. Florence Anderson, violinist, who received her training in Norway, Mrs. Marian Bridgman, flutist, formerly first flutist with the Chicago Women's Symphony, and with Mrs. Stuhman at the piano.

MORE THAN MEETS THE EYE—These gleaming brass rice dishes are not only beautiful, but melodic. Miss Adeline Veghte is shown playing music she composed, inspired by their ringing tones discovered when she was browsing in a little shop in Korea. In a recital presented for the Music Department of the Woman's Club recently, the composer was accompanied by Marion Bridgeman on the flute, and Mona Emanuel on harp.

Composer Presents Unique Recital For Woman's Club Music Department

Attracted to a set of brass rice dishes in a little shop in Korea, Miss Adeline Veghte, musician and composer, discovered that their beauty was more than visual. When struck, the bowls rang out with such beautifully clear musical tones, she couldn't resist setting the sounds to music.

Placing a series of various size bowls into a scale arrangement, Miss Veghte then composed melodies based on the unique harmonies. These she arranged for trio, adding parts for harp and flute.

Members of the Music Department of Arcadia Woman's Club had the pleasure of hearing a group of these Chinese Gong compositions at a recent meeting. Programmed were "Confucian Temple Chant," "Finneman's Joy," "The Prodigal Son," and "In The Windbell Temple."

Accompanied by Mona Emanuel, harpist, and Marion Bridgeman, flutist, Miss Veghte played her compositions and explained the background of each one.

Now a resident of Pasadena, Miss Veghte taught western music for many years at the University of Peking. Mrs. Emanuel and Mrs. Bridgeman are well known in the San Gabriel Valley, having appeared as soloists many times. Their most recent performance was for the Maryknoll Benefit at Monrovia Woman's Club.

A Chorus rehearsal was also held during the meeting under the direction of Mrs. Thatcher Jordan. Preparations are being made for the group to sing at the State Convention next Spring in Los Angeles. The chorus will join at least 500 other voices for the convention performance.

Mrs. Archie Slover, chairman of the department, announced that the December meeting would be held in conjunction with the mother club. It will be a Christmas party and the music department will assist in carol singing.

Mrs. Leonard Cartwright presented the program of Chinese music. Other members present were Misses Ted Dancart, Alfred LaRay, Waldo Greiner, A. R. Foy, William Adams, H. M. Trew, W. A. Cosgrove, E. J. Marie Taylor Gives Piano Program
For Woman's Club Music Department

WOMAN'S CLUB OF ARCADIA
Music Department Installation May 23, 1961

You are all no doubt familiar with the number 'Life is a Song' which goes on to say 'Let's sing it together'. We all make some kind of music and what kind of music we make is entirely up to ~~us~~ as individuals. Some people make music with lovely gardens which they grow for the enjoyment of all those who view the gardens. Others do it with their singing or playing of instruments. Some make music with a smile or by their laughter. Still others make music by a kind word or by a thoughtful deed. Unfortunately some people cause discord by words that should have been left unsaid or by a thoughtless act.

In a symphony orchestra each note must be played in its right place and at the right time or they are just notes that lack harmony. Thus with any organization, such as this department, each must do her part well to keep it pleasant and running smoothly. The leaders play their parts but depend upon rapport with you as members to have a harmonious composition that is pleasing to all of you.

Before installing you as officers of this department I would like to quote from William Henry Channing's definition of 'My Symphony' which seems worthy of note for each of us:

'To live content with small means; to seek elegance rather than luxury, and refinement rather than fashion; to be worthy, not respectable, and wealthy, not rich; to study hard, think quietly, talk gently, act frankly; to listen to stars and birds, to babes and sages, with open heart; to bear all cheerfully, do all bravely, await occasions, hurry never. In a word, to let the spiritual, unbidden and unconscious, grow up through the common. This is to be my symphony'.

Today we are going to create our symphony orchestra if each of you will extend your imagination a bit.

Mrs. Ranney Adams, as corresponding secretary, you will be the business manager of this orchestra so that all will operate smoothly and also to insure a good audience to listen or participate in the fine programs that will be presented during the ensuing year.

Mrs. M.R. Clark, as hospitality chairman, you will serve as personnel manager and see that new members become acquainted and soon feel a part of the group.

Mrs. Jayne Childrey, as recording secretary, you will be the arranger who interprets the score to all others and makes a recording of each session to be played back each month for information and pleasure of all.

Mrs. Gladys Dusenbury, as treasurer, you will be in charge of the tympani which provides the measured beat that makes the orchestra keep in perfect time and come out right at the end.

Mrs. Wallace Manley, as program chairman and assistant to the chairman, you will be the concert master who provides the proper key and tempo for all the other players who will be responsive to the inspiration you provide by means of stimulating programs. As assistant chairman you will aid the chairman and relieve her of many details.

Music Department to

Mrs. Lyman Vollintine, as Chairman of the group, you will be the symphony conductor who demonstrates the type of leadership that inspires all members to do their best in performing so that all selections played will create a harmonious effect at all times. With your wisdom and creative ability the coming year should be one of musical delight.

My congratulations to each of you new officers and much success for the coming year. I now declare all officers of the Music Department of Woman's Club of Arcadia to be duly installed.
